The Glen L. Rudd Foundation Scholarship

Glen L. Rudd spent a lifetime providing Christian service and humanitarian aid to his fellowmen. Much of his service was spent in the island nations of the South Pacific, particularly in New Zealand. His family has preserved this legacy of service through the establishment of a charitable foundation in his name. The foundation would like to assist in the higher education of Polynesian individuals who are also involved in service and other positive activities.

WHAT is the scholarship?

Assistance for higher education will be in the form of a grant of approximately $500-$1000 to pay for text books, class fees, and/or partial tuition. Exact amount will be specified as recipients are chosen.

WHO may apply?

Applicants must be Polynesian and planning to attend a college or university in the fall of 2017.

HOW do I apply?

Complete the following application and mail to:

GLRF Scholarship Committee

780 Pinewood Cir.
